C. F. BUSCHEMEYER'S SPEEDY GELDING FIN-ISHES THIRD IN HAMILTON RACE.

Crack Son of Hastings and White Thorn Makes Unaccountably Poor Showing and Well-Backed Horron Is Returned the Winner.

Hamilton, Ont., June 27.—One of the most remarkable reversals seen on the Canadian circuit this season came with the running of today's feature race at Hamilton, the Wentworth Plaie, six furlongs, $1,200 added, and in which the heavily backed odds-on favorite, Hawthorn, was benten off eight lengths by Horron and Calgary. On the opening day in the inaugural dash Hawthorn ran away from equally as good company, winning in 1:12%, pulled up. He carried 94 pounds in that race, while today he carried 112 pounds. Montourwas posted to ride Hawthorn, but at the last minute a shift was made to Gross. It is also said that Trainer Trevey did not want to start the gelding, claiming that he was not at himself. At all events Hawthorn was soundly beaten. He broke slowly, was outpaced from the first jump and was a distant third at the finish. Horron was heavily supported. He set a fast pace all the way, going the first half mile in :46%. Calgary kept him close company to the sixteenth post, where the Turney cell began to draw away and in passing the judges, he led Calgary by half a length, with Hawthorn may have been tampered with or he may be on the verge of a sickness. At all events this good racer's loss of speed in two days should be explained in some manner, according to the public view.

Old Salt, Onaping and Lena fell, the latter at the last fence, where she had a commanding lead. She was caught and remounted and finished third. The winner turned up in Morperth, which beat brene Gummel out twelve lengths.

The closest finish of the afternoon came with the running of the race over the turf course, in which Muff came from behind and just managed to get up in time to beat Daisy Platt a head.

The committee of the Canadian Racing Associations held a meeting this morning and several applications for licenses were passed on. The matter of the Mystic Light's steeplechase, run on the closing day of the Blue Bonnets meeting at Montreal, was also taken up and as a result of the investigation the further entries of the horses Enniskillen and Stairs were ordered refused. Jockey Keating's badge was also taken up and he was ordered off the grounds. No action was taken in the Aste case. The report on the affair was not turned in by the local stewards and the matter will probably be taken up at the next meeting. In the meantime Mr. Aste has left for New York, It is said the ruling of Presiding Steward J. A. Murphy does not affect the stake engagements of the Aste horses.

Gwynn Tompkins was an arrival this morning and sew san and it he recovers he will be sent back to Virginia to be turned out for the season.

AMATEUR SEASON AT AN END.

Spring Hunt Club Schedule Comes to Close at Belmont Park Terminal.

Belmont Park Terminal.

New York, June 27.—The spring meeting of the United Hunts Racing Association came to an end at Belmont Park Terminal this afternoon and brought to an end the series of aunt meetings around New York for the spring season. Although the weather was threatening, society turned out in large numbers, as the card was an attractive one. Before the day was over the blue peneil had played such a prominent part that the fields in the different races were greatly reduced. The most scratching was done in the Sportsmen's Steeple-chase Dinner Stakes, which was to bave been the feature of the program. Four of the thirteen subscribers failed to nominate a horse for the race and of the nine that were carded the only horses to face the starter were O Bear and Rock Abbey. Tim Donohue, trainer of the last named, did not care much about starting Rock Abbey, but when he saw that it would otherwise be a walkover for O Bear he thought he would take a chance. As matters turned out, it was a chance far better than he dreamed of, for Rock Abbey was returned the winner, and Charles Pfizer, his owner, will have the honor of acting as host at the dinner. O Bear appeared to outclass Rock Abbey to such an extent that he was at all times an odds-on choice, but the race turned out to be a farce before the first jump had been cleared. O Bear beat Rock Abbey away from the post, but he gave his backers a shock at the first jump when he ran out of the course instead of clearing the obstacle. He was brought back to the jump but when Mr. Alpers tried to send him over he refused. On the second trial he cleared it, but by that time Rock Abbey was far in front and although O Bear was sent over the course he never got anywaere near Rock Abbey, which had merely to canter in front all the way. Tommy Wright, who had the mount on Rock Abbey, also scored with the "good thing" Deduction in the second race. Deduction led all the way and won in a canter. The race was practically left at the post, the closing favorite, appeared to have the

THERESA GILL AGAIN A WINNER.

Speedy Filly Successfully Concedes Weight to Casey Jones and Others at Latonia.

Jones and Others at Latonia.

Cincinnati, O., June 27.—C. T. Worthington's fast filly, Theresa Gill, gave another sparkling exhibition of speed this afternoon in winning the handicap that served as the feature of the Latonia card. The filly was conceding weight by the scale to Casey Jones and the other starters. She assumed the lead immediately the barrier rose and showed the way for the entire trip. Casey Jones followed her most ctosely throughout and finished half a length behind her. Bobby Boyer beat the others, but was well beaten himself.

The card was an ordinary one and, coupled with the terrific heat prevailing nereabouts, caused a falling off in the attendance and betting. In the latter respect it was the lightest day of any this season, but far above what would have been considered the good days of several seasons ago.

While mediocre racers furnished most of the contests, the sport was interesting, with favorites and second choices figuring prominently in the results. The first five purses went to short priced contenders. Beautiful, at remunerative odds, beat a poor band in the closing cash, with Be and Wood Dove following most closely.

J. B. Respess uncovered a good one in the opener in Penalty, which beat nine other maidens in handy fashion after leading all the way. Ethelda finally managed to land a purse when she got to the finish under a hard drive in advance of Nello. J. Steele was unseated from Guide Post in this race as a result of his mount becoming involved in a jam at the half mile post. The rider escaped injury. Goose's good handling of Sleeth accounted for his victory over U Steppa and Cousin Puss. The lastinance was the favorite.

George M. Hendrie's Rifle Brigade, making his first start of the year, had little difficulty in winning the fifth race, for which Star of Danube ruled a slight favorite over him. Beautiful was lucky to escape interference in the closing dash and disposed of Be in the last furlong. Carlton Club. starting in this race, came back to the scales bleeding profusely

AN UNEVENTFUL DAY AT ALAN.

Spokane, Wash., June 27.—A program of the most ordinary kind, produced racing at Alan today that was spirited and fairly formful. The fourth race was attended by a most exciting finish, the first four driving hard throughout the final eighth of the running. Josic Lee got the decision by a narrow margin. Starter Edward Tribe left for Vancouver last night and his place will be filled here by his brother William for the remainder of the meeting.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY WYSONG'S REJOINDER.

New York, June 27.—In reply to Governor Sulzer's demand on District Attorney Wysong and Sheriff De Mott of Nassau County that they institute action against those who have been conducting the Belmont Park racetrack on the ground that the anti-gambling laws of New York state have been violated, District Attorney Wysong is oneted as follows:

quoted as follows:

"Show me one iota of evidence on which I can prosecute these alleged gamblers under the present law and I will take immediate action.

"Every day at Belmont Park we are sending from five to a dozen or more suspicious characters from the track who are attempting to place bets on the races. We have not sufficient evidence to hold them and by ejecting them from the grounds we are assisting in the preventing of crime.

"While there may be cases of betting at the tracks, in order to prevent it, it would be necessary to employ a detective for every visitor at the track. sary to employ a detective for every visitor at the track.

'If Canon Chase of Brooklyn has additional evidence and will submit it to me and I think it of value, I will co-operate with him and will do all that is possible.

'The laws made by the Legislature regarding gambling are so complex that it appears difficult to properly interpret them.'

PRODUCTS OF A SUCCESSFUL STUD.

A London writer remarks that one of the most important studs in the United Kingdom is that of Colonel W. Hall Walker, M. P., at Tutly, County. Kildare, in Ireland, the produce of which has during the current century won collectively in stakes a large proportion of $1,000,000—truly a splendid record for a private breeding establishment. Among the classic winners turned out from this famous haras have been Minoru, which was leased for his racing career to his Majesty the late King Edward, and won a sensational Derby; Prince Palatine, purchased as a yearling by Mr. Pilkington, and, which addition to winning the St. Leger, came home first for the Ascot Gold Cup. the Newmarket Stakes, the Jockey Club Stakes, and the Eclipse Stakes at Sandown, and the Princess of Wales Stakes at Newmarket; Cherry Lass, winner of the One Thousand Guineas and Oaks; and Witch Elm, which won the former race, Other great winners may be mentioned in Royal Realm, White Eagle, Charles O'Malley ran third for the Derby and second for the Ascot Gold Cup; White Eagle tharles O'Malley ran third for the Derby and second for the Ascot Gold Cup; White Eagle third for the Two Thousand Guineas, second for the St. Leger, and second for the Stakes, third for the Jock; Club Stakes, and second for the Jock; Club Stakes, and second for the Jockey Club Stakes, and seco

Winner—Br. m, by Ingoldsby—Josie L. (trained by W. B. Carson).

Went to post at 5:35. At post 2 minutes. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. MUFF was saved behind the leaders until straightened cut in the homestretch, then closed up with a rush on the outside and got up to win in the closing strides. DAISY PLATT took the lead quickly and showed the most speed in pacemaking to the last few strides, but was tiring at the finish. MIMESIS closed a big gap and finished with a rush. JONQUIL swerved out on the stretch turn when in closest pursuit of the leader. CHEMULPO finished well. CHRYSEIS quit badly.
